INTRODUCTION

LTLS is focused on the long-term and large-scale. It aims to explain the current nutrient status of UK terrestrial and freshwater ecosystems based on past nutrient inputs, land-use and climate. The river model is one component of the Integrated Model being developed.